

Member Colleges of the Association of Biblical Higher Education

Note: The colleges below are a part of the Association of Biblical Higher Education (ABHE), the nationally recognized accreditation body of which RBC is a member. While each college reserves the right to accept transfer of credit from other institutions according to its own criteria, it is reasonable to expect that the schools listed below would be open to accepting credits earned by students from fellow ABHE colleges. Students are advised to confirm transferability of RBC credit with the institutions in which they have interest. The academic dean's office at RBC may be able assist with transfer difficulties if they are encountered.
