

Record

HIGH 82 LOW 60

Partly Cloudy
No Precipitation
Thursday's Forecast

The Newspaper of Choral Camp Since 2000

Rosedale Bible College, Ohio

Thursday's Menu

Breakfast: Muffins, bacon, fruit, cereal, juice, milk

Lunch: Chicken strips, tator tots, carrots and celery sticks (with peanut butter or cream cheese), cake dessert, milk

Dinner: Spaghetti, garlic bread, corn, fruit, milk

Snack: Ice Cream with toppings, fruit punch

Q: "What do John the Baptist and Winnie the Pooh have in common?"

A: "The same middle name."

Thursday is Super Games Day!

7:30 Wake Up
8:00 Breakfast
9:00 Choir - library
9:30 Chapel
10:00 Time Capsule and Choral Camp
Tree - Chapel
10:30 Session XV
Yellow, Orange, Red - Music Class
Green, Blue, Black - Choose-a-Spot
11:30 Choir - Library
12:00 Lunch
1:00 Session XVI
Yellow, Orange, Red - Choose-a-Spot
Green, Blue, Black - Music Class
2:00 Choir - library
2:30 Super Games
5:15 Dinner
6:15 Recorder/Violin Classes
6:45 Session XVII
Yellow, Orange, Red - Music Class
Green, Blue, Black - Choose-a-Spot
7:45 Break
8:00 Old-Fashioned Hymn Sing - Library
8:45 Ice Cream Social
9:00 Running Games - whole camp
9:30 Green, Blue, Black - Campfire
Yellow, Orange, Red - Dorm Time
10:00 Yellow, Orange, Red - Lights Out
10:30 Green, Blue, Black - Lights Out

Soap Slide A Big Hit - Right on the Nose!

The weather was perfect for sliding around on soap-slickened plastic. Campers and staffers really mixed it up and had a blast, but the Record was saddened to learn of at least one painful injury.

Veteran counselor Kris Freed (who used to use a different name, Kris Shirk) was elbowed in the face as she stooped over a water barrel to refresh her sponge. The Record has learned that the smashing elbow was attached to a girl on Freed's hall. In a surprising twist, the camper claims the elbow was not thrown on purpose.

Shirk has been keeping a close eye on her injury

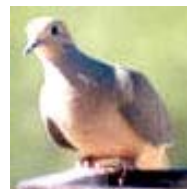

Can you pick out the 41-year-old volunteer mom?

Shofar, Dove Compete for Wake-Up Honors

Waking up proved particularly traumatic for several counselors on Wednesday. In Bach hall, Pastor Showalter brought out his yard-long shofar to sound the alarm at 7:30. By 7:45, after most of the guys on the hall had tried blowing the shofar themselves, and a few had "actually made a sound with it," a counselor, initials J.M., was found still "asleep" in his bed. A blast from the shofar was blown directly into the ear on one side of his head, and though results were not immediate, he did eventually regain consciousness.

For the last two or three mornings, a dove has been waking Keisha Helmuth, a counselor on Mozart Hall, at 7:15 or so. The bird sits on the ledge of her window and reportedly "coos its head off." Although Helmuth admitted to thoughts of violence while the bird's cooing drew her from the depths of her sleep, especially on Wednesday morning, she claims she has left the dove in peace so far.

Camp Cook Feels the Heat

Tipped off by several independent sources, the Record conducted an investigation into working conditions in the Choral Camp kitchen. Everything seems to be in order, except that the cook, Robin Troyer, has suffered first and second degree burns to her hand, arm, and leg. No one else has been hurt. It is suggested that the camp do further research to see if Troyer is braver and more dedicated than the other kitchen staff, or whether she is just more accident-prone.

Cookie-sheet burns, left forearm

Steam burn from kettle, right thumb

2-inch burn from oven rack, just above knee

What is this

"A somewhat smug parrot perched on part of the roof of the Sydney Opera House"

— Jon Showalter, photographer

"Definitely a turtle" —Elizabeth Diller, counselor

"A ghost sitting on a fence" —Steve Swartz, Mr. Phyllis

"A dog balancing on a butterfly" —Dawn Showalter, volunteer

"A portrait of how I look by the end of the week" —Phyllis Swartz, camp director

Correct Answer:

A sideview impression of Jared Stutzman blowing into his hands to sound like the dove on page 1.

ROOM INSPECTIONS

Best room on each hall:

Handel - #3 (Priscilla Miller, Lynita Hochstetler, Katrina Regier, Michelle Coblentz)

Beethoven - #12 (Cordell Coblentz, Reagan Ropp)

Strauss - #2 (Janae Stoltzfus, Linette Shetler, Zaundra Stoltzfus, Carrie Lambert)

Bach - #8 (Jed Miller, Justin Troyer, Tyler Schmucker)

Mozart - #12 (Bianca Rosario, Bethany Bender)

Best Hall:

Handel – Winners with every room neat and great decorations

Quotes of the Day

"You look joyful with sweat"

—Quotable Miss Emilie, to a shining counselor after the running games

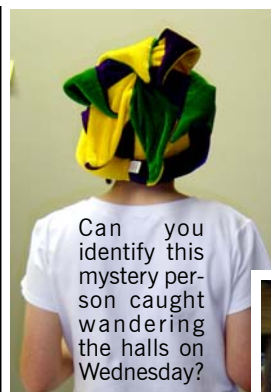

"This is my toy, and I don't share!" —Phyllis, of her megaphone

"No way! I sound like a dying whale"

—Camper, when asked if she would keep playing the recorder at home

"That looks like leftover shaving cream"

—said of the whipped butter at breakfast

Can you identify this mystery person caught wandering the halls on Wednesday?

One response to the papaya samples

Room Inspections Complicated by Clean Rooms

Nurse Inspectors Miller and Kauffman reported that so many campers (some counselors not included, names withheld) had their rooms so clean Wednesday morning that picking winners was difficult.

Sweet notes continued to be found in some rooms, much to the enjoyment of the nurses, who may have worried that Tuesday's story about bribery would stop their flow of goodies. One room just added to their note: "This is not bribery."

Hmmm.

