

THE ROSEDALE Record

HIGH 89		LOW 69
Partly Cloudy
Today's Forecast

The Newspaper of Choral Camp Since 2000

Rosedale Bible College, Ohio

Wednesday's Menu

Breakfast: Scrambled eggs w/ bacon, blueberry muffins, cereal, juice, milk

Lunch: Ham and cheese sandwiches, Doritos, grapes, Li'l Debbie cookies, juice

Dinner: Baked chicken, party mashed potatoes, peas, butterscotch pudding, dinner rolls

Q1: "What kind of nut sounds like a sneeze?"

Q2: "What did the mamma cow say to her baby cow?"

Answers on the bottom of the page

Wednesday is Skating and Hall Party Day

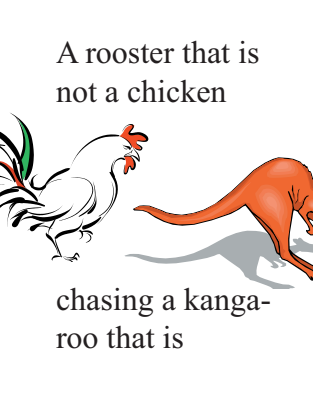

- 7:30 Wake Up
- 8:00 Breakfast
- 9:00 Choir – library
- 9:30 Chapel
- 10:00 Session XI
Yellow, Orange, Red – Music Class
Green, Blue, Black – Get Wet
- 11:00 Session XII
Yellow, Orange, Red – Get Wet
Green, Blue, Black – Music Class
- 12:00 Lunch – Pack a Picnic
- 1:00 Recorder/Violin Classes
- 1:30 Skating – Meet in front of chapel
- 4:30 Choir – library
- 5:15 Dinner
- 6:15 Recorder/Violin Classes
- 6:45 Session XIII
Yellow, Orange, Red – Music Class
Green, Blue, Black – Choose-a-Spot
- 7:45 Session XIV
Yellow, Orange, Red – Running Games
Green, Blue, Black – Music Class
- 8:15 Yellow, Orange, Red – Campfire
- 8:45 Green, Blue, Black – Running Games
Yellow, Orange, Red – Hall Party (and snack)
- 9:30 Green, Blue, Black – Hall Party (and snack)
Yellow, Orange, Red – Quiet Time
- 10:00 Yellow, Orange, Red – Lights Out
Green, Blue, Black – Quiet Time
- 10:30 Green, Blue, Black – Lights Out

Cream of the Camp Contest

Campers, online readers, counselors, guests—we invite everyone to help us identify the best application of shaving cream to real hair on the head or imaginary hair on the face. You may use your own standards to judge the creativity and appeal of the contestants' efforts.

First place will be awarded to one contestant from each gender. Boys are marked with "B"s and girls with "G"s, so please mark one choice for each group. Campers may vote by dropping their ballots in the ballot box at breakfast. Online readers, please send your selections to contest@rosedale.edu.

In the unlikely event that the Record has misjudged the gender of any finalist, it is probably because all that shaving cream can make it hard to tell the difference.

A1: "A cashew." A2: "It's pasture bedtime."

Newbie Counselor

Jason Yoder is a first year counselor from the wonderfully small state of DELAWARE. He first heard about camp from his music teacher at high school, Kevin Yoder. Kevin has encouraged him to come to camp for years but this is the first time Jason has been able to come. Jason enjoys working with the kids, but he has been heard saying, "I don't know if kids like me . . . I'll have to work on that." So give Jason a hug if you think he is doing a good job! You could also ask him to demonstrate his God given talent of whistling while smiling. Jason is looking forward to being the band assistant since he is familiar with many instruments including trumpet, trombone, recorder, baritone horn, piano, and guitar.

—Kara Heatwole

"It's a smoked sausage. That's why it's so smoky."

—Tyler Wagler, eating Li'l Smokies

"Iowa?"

—Camper, when Lynette asked the country of origin for the "really good piece of candy" he remembered from culture class last year.

Camp Scores with Choir Rehearsals

"That's the best time yet!" "We're two-for-two." Campers hear these and many other encouraging words during the two-per-day choir practices. Early morning is not the easiest time to sing, but Co-Directors Kevin Yoder and Ken Miller draw out the music inside of the campers before the end of the thirty-minute practice.

Practice on Tuesday morning begins by warming up with Listen to the Lord as He Speaks Softly. After a few minutes, the campers are divided into six groups, and the "rippling brook" sound of the round fills the air-conditioned library.

The pace quickens as the choir resumes their practice of Joshua Fought the Battle of Jericho. "Surprise yourself and the audience" is the helpful musical advice offered by Kevin to help a section of the choir "hear" how they should come in.

Campers catch on and are infected by the directors' enthusiasm for singing in a choir as they hear encouraging words. "This is the most exciting part of the song." "Smile - Jesus Loves You!"

—Bob Zook

ROOM INSPECTIONS

Best room on each hall:

Handel - #6 (Laura Byler, Ashley Kropf, Kayla Reeves)

Strauss - #1 & #6 (Jennifer Beller, Heidi Holleger, Marla Kauffman, Elizabeth Miller, Rachel Miller, Amber Swartzentruber, Erin Van Kampen, Chaska Yoder)

Beethoven - #3 (Philip Byler, Kendal Schlabach, Lincoln Schrock, Kyle Yutzy)

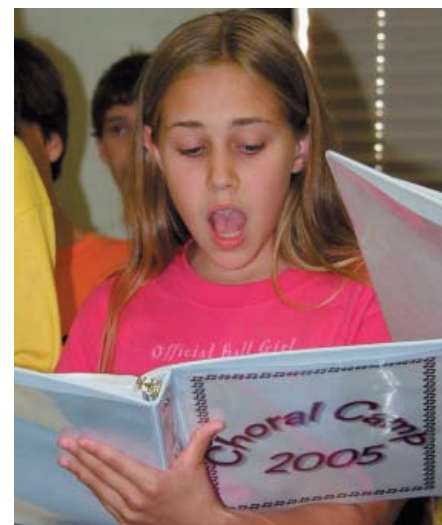

Mozart - #8 (Tina Benjamin, Fidelia Renne)

Bach - #5 (Kevin Kropf, Kaleb Stoltzfus, Kyle Stoltzfus)

Best Hall — Strauss

Best Counselor Room — Chris Yoder

Worst Counselor Room — Jesse Bontrager, Nathaniel Slaubaugh, Jason Yoder

Kochel Falls Into Hands of Unscrupulous Counselors

Early Tuesday morning authorities reported that Kochel, the bouncy Australian mammal with a German name, was missing. Around 9:00AM, Little Phyllis (aka Debbie Diller), discovered a ransom note on her desk.

"To whom it may concern: We have the beloved kangaroo! We are holding him for ransom! If you do not comply with our demands we may do him bodily harm! Our demands are as follows: Maria's purse from Der Dutchman, lots of candy, scholarships to Rosedale Bible College, and fruit. If you want Kochel back . . .

—The Counselors in Handel Hall"

Camp administrators sent back a courageous note of their own:

"Bring Kochel back! We do not negotiate with bad guys and we do not give in to their demands. Therefore we make our own demand that Kochel be returned, safe and sound, by tomorrow morning, or . . . else!"

—Debbie Diller

The perpetrators sent this photo of the camp's long-suffering mascot hidden away in a (very messy!) counselor's closet, presumably somewhere in Handel hall.

