

What to Bring to Choral Camp

Bedding

- sheets (for a single bed)
- blanket
- pillow

Clothing

(no short or tight shorts/skirts, spaghetti straps, or low-cut necklines, and no swimsuits without get-wet clothes, please)

- casual; for class and recreation
- clothes to get wet in (no swimming wear please; dark-colored clothing works best) Please mark tags with your child's first and last names.
- khaki bottoms (slacks, skirt, or shorts for the recitation). Please pin on the khaki bottoms a large note to your child: Don't wear until the recitation.
- shoes and/or sandals
- Wacky socks for Wednesday's Wacky Sock Day
- Socks for Wednesday's off-campus adventure

Personal Supplies

- towels
- toiletries
- fan - with your name on it
- sunscreen
- mosquito spray
- water bottle with your name on it
- nontoxic, reusable, hard-container, freeze-and-use style ice pack - labeled with your name
- bag for laundry

Class Supplies

- Bible
- 1-inch 3-ring binder with pockets with your name on it (Binders larger than 1 inch don't work well.)
- 2 pencils or pens
- optional - Any acoustic instruments (no electrically amplified instruments, please) for use during discretionary time
- stringed instrument (if signed up for a strings class)
- band instrument (if signed up for band)

Recreation Supplies

- 2 cans of shaving cream
- a large sponge
- 3 books to lend to the Choral Camp library for the week (Please mark with camper's first and last name.)

Optional

- a night light
- goggles (for the shaving cream slide)
- swimsuits for girls (to be worn under get wet clothing)
- shower cap (for get wet activities)
- blank book or bound notebook for a journal
- addressed, stamped envelope to mail a letter home
- You may wish to mark all clothing with camper's name. Please be sure get wet clothes are marked.
- Black Sharpies/fabric marker to let friends sign this year's Choral Camp t-shirt

What to Leave At Home

- cellphones (if necessary, campers may use hall leaders' phones; parents may contact their campers via the Choral Camp office)
- carbonated beverages
- radios, CD players, MP3's, ipods
- video games
- large sums of money
- skateboards

 These items could be packed together for your camper to take to the check-in Monday morning.