Choral Camp underway

Well over one hundred musicians and singers from over ten states converged on Rosedale Monday morning to participate in the second annual Choral Camp.

Campers arrived in 15-passenger vans from Delaware, in minivans with jealous younger siblings, and in cars driven by a parent. Several campers who live less than a mile away even walked to Choral Camp.

“Rosedale Bible Institute received over 150 applications for Choral Camp by the beginning of March,” said Phyllis Swartz, camp director.

“The ones who made it in should feel very fortunate.”

Campers should expect a week similar to last year’s camp, according to Phyllis.

“You’ll sing a lot, eat a lot, sweat a lot, and spit shaving cream out of your mouth a lot. One change, fortunately, is that you won’t puke a lot since we removed the baby food-eating contest from the schedule.”

New activities will include Super Games and a trip to the brand new COSI.

Monday’s Menu

Lunch: ham, mashed potatoes, green beans, jello, cake

Dinner: hamburger cookout, Kool-Aide, chips, carrot and celery sticks, brownies

Campers loaded luggage from their cars to dorm rooms early this morning.

From the Camp Director

I’m glad you came to Choral Camp. Did you know that about thirty-five staff people also came to Choral Camp? They came to help you learn, to help you have fun, and to keep you healthy. If you need something this week, talk to someone on the staff. If you have a question, ask it. The staff is here to help.

But you can help as well. Lots of campers are here for the first time. Many campers don’t know anyone else. Watch out for other people on this first day. Let’s see if everyone can go to bed this evening with at least one friend.

- Phyllis Swartz

Psalm of 95:1-7 the Week

Come

let us sing for joy to the Lord;
let us shout aloud to the Rock of our salvation.

let us come before him with thanksgiving and extol him with music and song

For the Lord is the great God,
the great King above all gods.

In his hand are the depths of the earth and the mountain peaks belong to him.

The sea is his, for he made it.
And his hands formed the dry land.

Come

let us bow down in worship,
let us kneel before the Lord, our Maker;

For we are
the people of his pasture,
the flock under his care.
