Super Games arrives today

This afternoon campers will be treated to a Choral Camp first, Super Games. Huge inflatable structures will be available for campers to run and jump in. In one game, Powerball, four campers at a time try to score a goal inside a giant inflatable stadium. A giant inflatable obstacle course will also be set up in the field.

Other events include: wacky trikes, water tag, water balloon launch, punctured drum relay, strata ball, a giant six foot shot put, paradise island, chicken juggling, and asteroid alert.

This game is like many of the games you will play this afternoon.

Wednesday's hayride took campers by many Madison County corn fields.

Thursday's Menu

Breakfast: scrambled eggs, cereal, orange juice, milk

Lunch: chicken strips, french fries, lettuce salad, ho ho cake

Dinner: pizza!, bread sticks, applesauce, cucumber slices, butterscotch pudding

Choral Quiz

Cheryl Heatwole looked up an obscure musical term in a very old book and asked Choral Campers what they thought "smorzando" (falling away) meant:

"I don't know...uh....a disease?"

- Jenna Rinehart and Janae Stoltzfus

"Someone snoring."

- Shauna Yoder

"I have no idea...sort of like a smore?"

- Seth Showalter

"Half hippo, half pig."

- Micah Miller

"An airplane that comes from Jupiter."

- Sawyer Bender

"Smores on dough."

- April Byler

"Music you sing around a campfire."

- Kris Shirk

"A place far away where the marshmallow people live."

- Ryan Freed

"Tasty music."

- David Miller

Choral Camp Collage

Did You Know?

... that you can come to Rosedale and study music in college? You can learn more about music theory and sight-singing with Ken. You can also learn how to conduct choirs and lead worship at your church.

Joke of the Day

Q: How can you drop an egg 1000 feet without it breaking?

A: Drop it from 101 feet.

Top Ten Reasons for middle school guys to be in Ryan's Recorder Class

10. Because Ryan is the teacher
9. Music is cool
8. All the little kids are doing it so you have to too
7. Two recorders, connected by a chain, make a good pair of num chucks
6. This way you can really annoy your parents by playing on long trips
5. If you are starving you can eat your recorder
4. To be sensitive nineties guys
3. Because Ryan is the teacher
2. To kill some time before lunch
1. Because girls dig musicians

Room Check Ratings

Things that Gert checks:

- beds made
- dirty laundry out of sight
- “stuff” on the floor
- duffle bags not noticeable when the door is opened. They can be under beds and desks if they are neat and closed.
- towels hung up
