NURSES BRIBED!

An investigation has been launched at Choral Camp 2001. The important people in charge allege that campers attempted to bribe room inspectors on Tuesday morning. One room gave the inspectors a treat and then wrote a note that read, "This is not a bribe, just a kind gesture."

Another camper wrote a poem:

*Nurses are pretty,
Nurses are sweet.
Our nurses help us
stay on our feet.*

Two other campers, Joshua Chapman and Eli Showalter, wrote the following note: "Dear inspector, Yesterday Philis [sic] said that we could do extra to earn high points. Unfortunately, we didn't bring any candy. So may we suggest a plan. Tell RBI to use some of that generous money that someone sent in to buy a vending machine or two in the dorms."

Investigators had nothing to say but "no comment" when they read that letter.

Conrad Showalter, campus pastor, is attacked by two ungrateful choral campers.

Wednesday's Menu

An interesting column

Rachel Bender asked Choral Campers what they thought "pizzicato" meant. The definition is: "By means of plucking instead of bowing."

- "a piece of cake."
- Heather Holleger (DE)
- "a kind of cheese found in the armpit of a wild boar."
- Ryan Freed
- "pizza on a crisp, hard crust."
- President Leon Zimmerman
- "slimy goo out of a pit."
- Melanie Mast
- "a pluck on a violin."
- Brooke
- "less than a staccato."
- Jonathan Miller
- "a musical piece of pizza."
- Rachel Yutzky
- "eating cottage cheese in a pit while singing 606."
- Marcus Freed
