

Record

HIGH	LOW
91	64
fair

The Newspaper of Choral Camp Since 2000

Rosedale Bible College, Ohio

Wednesday Schedule Features Music

7:30	Wake Up
8:00	Breakfast
9:00	Choir - library
9:30	Chapel
10:00	Session XI Yellow, Orange, Red – Class - library Green, Blue, Black – Get Wet
11:00	Session XII Yellow, Orange, Red– Get Wet Green, Blue, Black – Class - library
12:00	Lunch - Pack a Picnic
1:00	Recorders
1:30	Meet in front of library to leave for skating
4:30	Choir - library
5:15	Dinner
6:15	Recorders
6:45	Session XIII Yellow, Orange, Red – Class - library Green, Blue, Black – Choose-a-Spot
7:45	Session XIV Yellow, Orange, Red – Running Games - sports spot Green, Blue, Black – Class - library
8:45	Yellow, Orange, Red - Hall Party (and snack) Green, Blue, Black – Running Games - sports spot
9:30	Green, Blue, Black – Hall Party (and snack) Yellow, Orange, Red - Quiet Time
10:00	Yellow, Orange, Red – Lights Out Green, Blue, Black – Quiet Time
10:30	Green, Blue, Black -- Lights Out

Annual Choral Camp Cream a Close Shave

Preceded by a new move to identify and avoid “cream crimes,” the annual shaving cream festival at choral camp was a really slick event. Groups of boys (and some men) were seen sliding on their bellies at high speed across the canvas, shouting “Clear!” to avoid crashing into other creamers, most of whom paid no mind.

Several disasters may have been narrowly averted, though since they never happened, the Report is unable to describe them. Counselor Jesse Diller may have been safe if he had remained on the tarp, but received a “2-inch, gaping” slice beside his big toe when he stepped off into the grass. Medical staff slipped into action and smoothly whisked him to the emergency room. A twisted ankle and a nosebleed rounded out the list of minor injuries from campers creaming each other.

Another near miss occurred on the new “gentle tarp,” where Camp Pastor Conrad Showalter had his head shampooed with shaving cream by a dozen seemingly harmless little girls. Later, a rumor surfaced that they may have been secretly planning to shave his head.

Reflecting on this year’s cream, Coordinator Phyllis Swartz commented, “I’m just glad no one got hurt.”

Wednesday's

Menu

Breakfast: French toast, sausage links, juice

Lunch: Brown bag - ham sandwich, chips, banana, cookies, drink

Dinner: Spaghetti, garlic bread, mixed veggies, cherry delight.

Records for The Record

2002 continues to be a banner year for setting all-time choral camp records.

First Newlyweds on Staff

Robert Hans and Carla Byler are the first couple who met at Choral Camp to get married.

Most Forgetful Organizer

Organizer Mary Ann Miller, carefully selected for her position by trained personnel managers, apparently did not report that she sometimes forgets things. Through investigative tactics that could be copied by the FBI, the Record has learned that she forgot to bring her garment bag with all her (clean) dresses. The same source revealed that she also forgot to bring her list of things to bring.

When confronted with the evidence, Mrs. Miller protested, "I really am organized."

ROOM INSPECTION

Best room on each hall:

Beethoven - #9 (Jonathan Miller, Lucas Spicer, Matthew Wolfer)

Bach - #4 (Jesse Blank, Jordan Bender, Jared Kauffman, Andy Sommers)

Handel - #2 (Rebecca Diller, Carrie Maust, LaDawn Yoder)

Strauss - #10 (Mikala Miller, Mary Beth Riehl, Anna Yoder)

Mozart - #2 (Andrea Gingerich, Destiny Gingerich, Whitney Mayer, Amanda Weber)

Hall scores:

Beethoven - 8

Bach - 6

Handel - 8

Strauss - 6

Mozart - 8

Quote of the Day

“He keeps eating Nerds® — he must be a cannibal!”

—Anonymous camper (apparently a nerd) about a really cool camper

