

Thursday's Menu

Breakfast: Pancakes, sausage, cereal, juice, milk

Lunch: Chicken strips, baked beans, green beans, grapes, fudge brownie pudding, cake

Dinner: Macaroni and cheese w/ ham, mixed veggies, mixed fruit, chocolate eclair dessert

Janae: "Where do grapes go for a good time?"

Lorinda: "To a jam session!"

Thursday is Super Games Day!

7:30	Wake Up
8:00	Breakfast
9:00	Choir – library
9:30	Chapel
10:00	Time Capsule and Choral Camp Tree – Chapel
10:30	Session XV Yellow, Orange, Red – Music Class Green, Blue, Black – Choose-a-Spot
11:30	Choir – Library
12:00	Lunch
1:00	Session XVI Yellow, Orange, Red – Choose-a-Spot Green, Blue, Black – Music Class
2:00	Choir – library
2:30	Super Games
5:15	Dinner
6:15	Recorder/Violin Classes
6:45	Session XVII Yellow, Orange, Red – Music Class Green, Blue, Black – Choose-a-Spot
7:45	Room Break
8:00	Old-Fashioned Hymn Sing – Lobby
9:00	Running Games – Whole Camp
9:30	Green, Blue, Black – Campfire Yellow, Orange, Red – Dorm Time
10:00	Yellow, Orange, Red – Lights Out Green, Blue, Black – Dorm Time
10:30	Green, Blue, Black – Lights Out

Campers Give Soap Slide Clinic

Here at Choral Camp we have eight years of experience at sliding on large sheets of soapy plastic. As a public service the Record has decided to pass on some of the tips and techniques gathered from the experts themselves: Our campers.

"If you lay on your back, you can gain speed and go farther." —Jenna Bontrager

"Slide on your belly with your feet up . . . grab a sponge on the way and ATTACK!"

—Scott Brenneman

"Run and slide on your stomach." —Sara Byler

"Slide on your belly, but make sure you glide into it or you'll flop." —Emilee Bender

"I slide on my knees . . . it doesn't hurt as much." —Melody Fisher

"Slide legs first so you don't get hit on the head." —Jacob Borders

"Have a counselor spin you by the ankles" —Doll

—Sports Reporter Kara Heatwole

. . . more blessed to give than receive

The Brenneman Method?

Music Teacher Here a Really Long Time

Jenny Miller plays an important role here at Choral Camp as she assists Ken (her husband) with TAP classes and wherever else she is needed. She has been at Choral Camp every year since it began and sees it as an important part of her summer. Everyone in the family is involved, either as a camper or part of the staff. (Imagine the laundry that is stacking up for the weekend!)

Ken and Jenny began to notice one another while singing close to each other in the same choir. Jenny can't remember exactly what he was wearing, but then she isn't sure she wants to. "He wasn't a very snappy dresser in those days," she sniffs.

When Jenny isn't busy at Choral Camp, she is home-schooling, singing and playing piano with the worship team at church, or trying to squeeze in some reading time. What is her favorite part of camp? "Walking through campus and hearing the different recorder/violin/band classes playing." Thanks for being here Jenny!

— Features Reporter Kelly Troyer

How bad were Ken's clothes when we met?

The Nightingale

Featuring the potential adventures of a Choral Camper named Dal Segno, though she goes by the name of Doll. She's such a sweetie!

The next morning when Doll woke up, her counselor brought her the lost care package! Just after bedtime the night before, Camp Hostess Sherry Schrock had noticed a small package in the flowerbed in front of the dorm, and that pesky stray beagle was headed straight for it! Sherry rescued the package, examined it just enough to see Doll's name on it, and gave it to the counselors to give to Doll.

With her care package—and her connection to her family—restored, Doll was sure the day would be a great one. Even some of the girls who had seemed stuck-up yesterday turned out to be quite nice. She decided she liked all of them, except maybe the girl who was always showing off her soprano voice to the music teachers. Doll had noticed it especially when the choir sang Laudamus Te.

During Choose-a-Spot in the afternoon, Doll chose to read. She took the family photo from the care package along with her so she could take some time to look at it while pretending to read. She looked at the picture, she started to read, and then she closed the picture in the book as a wonderfully cozy feeling swept over her.

She woke up with a start. She had slept through the bell at the end of the session, and now a counselor had come looking for her. Embarrassed, she quickly reached for the book with her picture inside, but someone had cleaned up all the books and put them away!

—to be continued

Dal Segno ✂

Just hangin' out. "I love this camp!"

Room Inspections

Best room on each hall:

Mozart – #8 (Jenna Bontrager, Tiffany Kercher, Kiera Mininger, Natasha Bontrager)

Beethoven – #4 & #7 (Vincent Borders, Philip B, Kevin Kropf, Evan Shirey, Andrew Jen-sen, Jordan Miller, Eric Critch-nau, Grant Smucker)

Strauss – #7 (Bethany Swartz, Bethany Gingerich, Bethany Bender, Bianca Rosario)

Bach – #10 (Justin Kuhns, Eric Kuhns, Jeremy Plank, Curtis Plank)

Handel – #5 (Leah Bender, Melanie Byler, Ericka Byler)

Best Hall — Beethoven (Great job, Guys! . . . Ooh. Two days in a row!)

Best Counselor Room

— Beethoven #6 (Jason Yoder, Doug Root, Chris Yoder)

Did he know when he picked the T-shirt? Darryn Byler was called out of TAP class to provide the password to his parents' email account. The Record wonders who changed it!

Debbie is Bach Mascot

He first showed up in the room of counselors Ryan Graber and Jared Kauffman, but since then he has made himself right at home all over Bach Hall.

His name is Debbie, and he is a duck who claims he was named after Phyllis. He loves to be in the room of the campers who quiet down first, but sometimes he and the guys have so much fun quacking around that the counselors have to insist he stay on the dresser.

The Record doesn't know much about Debbie's family, but it understands that research is being done in the Bender Book to see if he and Kuru are 17th cousins once removed, on their father's side.

You Said It!

“It really is a charming face!”

—Jon Showalter, RBC academic dean, speaking of Debbie

“Man, time sure goes fast in Ohio!”

— anonymous male camper

“I'm a hall leader – I have a right to whine.”

—Darnell Brenneman, on being told that he was whining