Debbie's farewell to campers

Dear Campers,

This week you played hard, sang well and made lots of new friends. As I listened to you sing in choir today, I was amazed at the sound of all your voices blending together so well.

Thank you for singing, praising, and exalting God this week. I will miss you and your smiles, hugs, and high-fives. Goodbye! I hope to see you next summer!

~ Debbie Hochstedler
Choral Camp Coordinator

Did you know that you can go to college on the Choral Camp campus? You can even graduate, like Jason (and Jared) did. If you've learned to sing really well, you can tour with the Rosedale Chorale. Ask Ken Miller—he's the Chorale director.

Correction

Due to a state of Choral-Camp-induced somnambulism (sleepwalking), your editor defined somniloquy incorrectly in Thursday's Record. The correct definition is sleep talking.
