A history scoop—the beat goes on

By Karissa Brenneman

ROSEDALE, Ohio -- Campers' eyes flit from paper to Powerpoint and back again. Pencils are flying! As the music swells and fades, campers chat about the type of music that's playing.

Some are more excited than others, but the music itself is always interesting. From Gregorian chant to ragtime, Mr. Kevin always has something clever to show in history class.

Campers shout out "Bach," "jazz," "Beethoven," "secular"! Campers are studying contemporary music this year. I'm sure Mr. Kevin and Bethany Barkdoll have many things to teach campers about music from different eras.

Here's what campers had to say about history class:

"It was fun!"

"It's in the past."

"You listen to a lot of music."

"You learn a lot."

"It was cool!"

Editor's note: This year, Kevin Yoder is covering contemporary music, including jazz, ragtime, contemporary Christian, and folk.

Not only does Ken have two heads (see Tuesday's Record), he has two bodies, with matching cowlicks. Who knew?

Joke of the day!

Ich halte es nicht mehr aus!

Q. Why did Mozart get rid of his chickens?

A. They kept saying "Bach, Bach, Bach!"
