Campers clap their ears! ¿Pero por qué?★

Aiden Pirolozzi and Caleb Yoder demonstrate the new rage: ear clapping. Warning–be gentle with this!

During today's Choral Camp Welcome in the chapel, numerous campers (at least three or four of them!) displayed a new way to applaud: they clapped their ears. The Record interviewed several likely suspects to see what they thought about this new and somewhat odd behavior. Could they explain it? Here's what they had to say:

Samuel Stoltzfus: "They tried to cover their ears, and when they opened them up again, they thought, 'Wait a minute – that's fun!'"

Glory Freed: "They do it because it sounds cool when they do that."

Camp Pastor Ryan Freed, looking puzzled: "Have they been told to protect their ears?"

Camp Coordinator Collette Slabaugh: "I think they were trying to clap normally, but their heads got in the way."

Of course, our fearless Camp Director Matt Showalter had the most complex explanation: "They're aliens with an aversion to human sound. The sound waves of humans clapping interfere with their brain waves, so they put their hands over their ears to rebalance the wave algorithms."

Hmmmm, that sounded a little iffy, so we went to our resident mathematician, Ken Miller. Ken also happens to be the music director for Choral Camp, so he gave us the musical take: "I think they're enjoying the effect it creates—the sound going on and off." Asked about Matt's algorithm, he just laughed in an affectionate, yet condescending, way. 🐶

★ But why?

Collette says hello ¡Hola! ¿Qué tal?★

Welcome, Campers! It is so exciting for me to be a part of Choral Camp this year! I've been looking forward to campus buzzing with all kinds of activity and enthusiasm. That's where you come in! We are so glad you chose to spend part of your summer here, because without you, Choral Camp wouldn't even happen. It's going to be a great week of adventure, and I hope you are ready for a time of fun, learning, and praising our Lord! 🐣

★ Hi! How's it going?

Our mighty Camp Coordinator, Collette Slabaugh.

Q. What do you get
if you cross a grizzly bear and a harp?

A. A bear-faced lyre!

Yesterday ~ Jamison Bender
Today ~ Natalie Myers, Kiersten Schwartz,
Katelynn Ebersole

(Feliz cumple is short for happy birthday.)

Tuesday's Menu

Breakfast: Biscuits, sausage gravy, blueberries, cereal, milk, juice.

Lunch: Mac-n-cheese w little smokies (GF), green beans, grapes, No-bake cookies.

Supper: Pizza, veggie cups, applesauce.

Evening snacks: Pudding (GF), graham crackers.

Our chef, Holly Miller, says menus are subject to change as the need arises.

Send Your camper an email!

Families, if you want to send your camper a message, just send it to choralcamp@rosedale.edu with your camper's full name in the subject line. We'll deliver the message (but it's a one-way street – campers won't be writing back).

Like Rosedale Bible College on Facebook and see more pix of campers! We'll try to post camper pix every day.
