¡Adios, campistas!

News flash! Paco is back and reunited with Collette! He didn't run away, after all. He just went over to Culture Class to be a Culture Chihuahua. Hooray for Paco! ¡Viva el chihuahua de los campistas!

Collette says goodbye, adios, farewell

Dear campers/queridos campistas,

It is time to say goodbye. I have been so blessed this week hearing you praise our God with your beautiful voices and instruments. I have had a blast watching you delight in all the camp activities like the Choral Camp Cream, hayride and Super Games.

You are all special and I hope your week was as memorable as mine. We can't wait to see you next year! Keep on making music!

Did you know that you can go to college on the Choral Camp campus? Thomas, Sarah, and Esther are doing just that. If you've learned to sing really well, you can tour with the Rosedale Chorale. Ask Jared Stutzman about it!

The Shire – next year's country for Culture Class?

Reported by Ryan Freed

Choral Camp Nurse Kara Thoman overheard some campers thinking out loud yesterday.

"I wonder what next year's country for Choral Camp will be?" said one.

"Hey!" said the other. "Maybe it could be Lord of the Rings!"

An awed silence followed. Then, "Yeah! That would be great!"

"And we could have Hobbit food!"

Unfortunately, that's all that Kara heard, but we can fill in the rest and make a plea for the powers that be to consider this incredibly appealing suggestion.

Think about it. The dwarves loved to sing, the Hobbits loved to eat, and the Shire was a green and happy oasis of peace, just like Choral Camp. This could work!
