The hidden land of Choral Camp Counselors

By AnnaStasia Yoder

Where do the counselors go while the campers are in choir?

Rumor has it that they sneak away to a hidden land through a secret entrance. People say that this portal is found in the flamingo bucket.

Once you're there, you may feast on clouds of cotton candy and tornados of Tootsie Rolls. If you're tired, you can rest on beds of butterflies and play with winged wombats.

This secret land is also overrun with fuzzy and fluffy slides. Daring dragonflies lift you to the top of these chutes, and trusty turtles catch you at the bottom.

You can even swim in gummy worm waterfalls and Fanta fountains.

But these are all rumors at best, from whispering and wonderings all around camp. Campers will continue to marvel at this hidden land for the rest of this week, and perhaps till the end of time.

Okay, it's not a winged wombat, but look at its awesome floral crown!

The liquid in this fountain is orange, just like Fanta!

Collette says hello, campers! ¡Hola! ¿Qué tal?*

Welcome, Campers! It is so exciting for me to be a part of Choral Camp this year! I've been looking forward to campus buzzing with all kinds of activity and enthusiasm. That's where you come in!

We are so glad you chose to spend part of your summer here, because without you, Choral Camp wouldn't even happen. It's going to be a great week of adventure, and I hope you are ready for a time of fun, learning, and praising our Lord! 🐼

Send Your camper an email!

Families, if you want to send your camper a message, just send it to choralcamp@rosedale.edu with your camper's full name in the subject line. We'll deliver the message (but it's a one-way street – campers won't be writing back).

Like Rosedale Bible College on Facebook and see more pix of campers! We'll try to post camper pix every day.
