Campers, the Crew needs your help!

By Stasha Yoder

While we're all jealous of the secret counselor's escape (the hidden land), word has spread that it is not the only hidden location at Choral Camp. Rumor has it that the Crew is sent to the Choral Camp Dungeon.

There they eat lunch with sewer rats and dinner with the cockroaches. The prison floor is covered with glippity-glop and slippity-slop.

Why is the Crew sent here? No one really knows for sure. Perhaps Micah and Rachel, the Crew Chiefs, send them there to build character. Or maybe the Crew Chef Chief, Benji, sends his doomed disciples to this dungeon so he may take a nap.

What is the meaning of such tyranny? What should be done about such mistreatment?

Campers, unite! Justice will only be served if you stick together and return good for evil by singing your favorite camp song to Micah, Rachel, and especially Benji.

Collette the Crewel says, "What's the big deal? It's nice in here. The Crew should be pleased to be here."

Crew members don't get hot drinks, but the little rats do.

Wow, was it really that cold?

CAMPERS TURN INTO PENGUINS (ALMOST)!

No, but they don't have the right kind of feathers.

Happy birthday, Sierra Knepp and Isabella Rivera!
