¡Adios, campistas!

Collette Slabaugh, intrepid and much loved Camp Coordinator.

Collette says goodbye, adios, farewell

Dear campers/queridos campistas,

It is time to say goodbye. I have been so blessed this week hearing you praise our God with your beautiful voices and instruments. I have had a blast watching you delight in all the camp activities like the Choral Camp Cream, hayride and Super Games.

You are all special and I hope your week was as memorable as mine. We can't wait to see you next year! Keep on making music!

Sarah, Thomas & Esther

Did you know that you can go to college on the Choral Camp campus? Thomas, Sarah, and Esther are doing just that. If you've learned to sing really well, you can tour with the Rosedale Chorale. Ask Jared Stutzman about it!

Nurses report best bribe ever!

After a long week of almost no bribes, things picked up for the nurses who inspected the dorm rooms. First, they received the typical (and always appreciated) bribes from campers: candies arranged in hearts, accompanied by cheerful notes.

But when Kara Thoman and Ellen Moore walked into their office on Friday morning, they were stunned to see the best bribe ever offered at Choral Camp. A beautiful bouquet of flowers, chocolates galore, and a note that thanked the nurses in rhyme! Wow!

"I am simply amazed," said Nurse Ellen. "Good job done, guys."

Because yes, the lovely gifts came from campers in Beethoven. The note included a mysterious P.S.: "Fluffy unicorns are awesome 3 [or is it &?] winners."

The Record's decoders are stumped on that one. But Nurse Kara wants the guys from Beethoven (whoever they may be) to hear this: "Thank you for being gentlemen!"

For the Record (hmm-mm)

The delightful song "Tideo, tideo!" (which sounds like "tidy-oh") rang through the halls at camp as campers learned how to dance to the tune. Yet apparently not everyone is enchanted; perhaps they've heard it too many times?

In defense of the little ditty, Camp Coordinator Collette said, "For the record, I still like the song."

To which Camp Director Matt Showalter replied, "For the record, I don't!"

The Record tried to find out what Matt meant, but he dug in his Camp Director heels and said, "I will give you no information. I've been burned by journalists in the past and I refuse to be burned again. NO COMMENT!"
