Goodbye, campers!

Collette Slabaugh, Celebrated
Choral Camp Coordinator

Collette says goodbye: Allahaismarladık!

Goodbye, campers! Camp has come to an end and I am sad to see you go. I hope you've had as much fun this week as I've had (and maybe even more!).

As you return home, remember all the fun activities you experienced, the wonderful friends you made, and the valuable ways you learned to praise God through music. I'm so glad you came to Choral Camp this year and I hope to see you again next year!

Did you know that you can go to college on the Choral Camp campus? Sarah and Benji did that—just ask them. If you've learned to sing really well, you can tour with the Rosedale Chorale. Ask Jared Stutzman about it!

Choral Camper Tanner Slabaugh and his family recently visited Turkey, the country we've been studying in Culture Class. Tanner spent three weeks visiting his grandmother, who lives there. He answered a few questions for us about his trip and what he did.

Tanner enjoyed the food, especially rice wrapped in grape leaves. While in Turkey, he visited the city of Ephesus. He also saw an ancient library and very old architecture.

When asked if he would go back to Turkey, Tanner responded with a resounding "Yes!"

Choral Camp Reunion!

Saturday, August 6, at CMC's Annual Conference (see ad this page), from 5:30-6:14 in Room 503. We hope to see you there!
