Campers! We'll miss you!

Collette and Mamo talk about how much they're going to miss the campers.

Goodbye from Collette

The end of Choral Camp has come, but the music doesn't stop. Music is your expression of love to God. You can praise him any time with your voice or with an instrument. In the Bible, the Psalms tell us to "Make a joyful noise unto the Lord, all the earth. Make a loud noise, rejoice and sing praise." This is pleasing to God. He loves it! So even when you leave Choral Camp, rejoice with all your heart! The music doesn't stop.

I hope camp has been a fun and meaningful experience for you this year. We're so glad you came and we're already looking forward to seeing you next year!

Did you know that you can go to college on the Choral Camp campus? Kara did! She sang with Salt & Light Co. and Chorale, and so did Benji —just ask them. If you've learned to sing really well, you can tour with the Rosedale Chorale. Ask Jared Stutzman!

About some first-year and last-year campers

By Anna Yoder

Anna Gaertner (above left, on the left): This is Anna's second and last year at Choral Camp. The Camp Cream, Hall Party, and History are a few of her favorite things from Camp. She loves History because campers get to listen to styles of music and learn about them. Next year, Anna hopes to return to Choral Camp as a member of the Crew.

Elizabeth Martin (above left, on the right): This is Elizabeth's seventh year at Choral Camp. Like Anna, the Camp Cream is one of her favorite memories, in addition to Running Games. Interestingly, another favorite memory was when the Super Games were rained out, and instead there was an inside obstacle course in the classroom building. Activities included sliding down steps on a mattress, rolling chair riding, and pillow jumping. Elizabeth also hopes to come back next year as a Crew member.

These two young women are friends from the same family group; they say that "The Ghost of Tom' is our jingle."

Tristan Yoder (above right): This is Tristan's very first year as a camper at Choral Camp. He has immensely enjoyed his week and has several favorite activities. The Camp Cream and Super Games are high on the list. He also has enjoyed his recorder lessons! Tristan hopes to come back next year.

A Salvadoran adventure!

By Emilie Miller

Four of our campers got to visit a different country a few weeks ago! Victoria and Elena Hernandez, and Danielle and Uriah Brobst went to El Salvador. They're cousins and were visiting their grandparents and aunts and uncles, who live in Tejutepique. Life is very different in El Salvador—the younger kids chased the chickens and ducks around for entertainment, and cows and dogs got in the way when they drove through the streets.

Elena and Uriah loved eating pupusas. (According to Wikipedia, "A pupusa is a traditional Salvadoran dish of a thick corn tortilla stuffed with a savory filling.") The kids got to spend time with family and even visited two waterparks during their visit. If you see them, be sure to ask them about their trip!
