Who is the mystery guest in Handel Hall?

The squirrel asked the monkey, the hippo and the panther, but they don't know how he got here.

Hi, I'm your little rodent friend. if you know how I got here or what my name is, please let The Record know! Thanks.

The girls on Handel Hall have an unexpected guest: a squirrel. Nobody's quite sure how he got there, and he's a little bit out of place. Handel's decorative theme is The Jungle, and ordinarily, squirrels stick to the woods. Or backyards. But NOT jungles.

Still, there he is.

Camper Rylie Hershey's theory is that he just moved there, but Elena Hernandez says she heard that "he was brought there by a wild beast!"

This could be true. After all, monkeys and panthers have been seen in Handel Hall. Erin Yoder reports that the squirrel, who remains unidentified, "seems to be settling in." Lauren Hertzler agreed: "He seems to really like it."

But Elena Hernandez wasn't having any of that. "I heard he got bitten by a snake!"

The irreplaceable Collette Slabaugh, program director, with her new friend Jaya, camp mascot.

Good morning, campers!

Greetings from Collette, the Cool One

Hello Campers! Welcome to Choral Camp 2018! We are so excited that you chose to spend part of your summer here learning about music and the love of God.

God instructs us in the Bible to make a joyful noise to him and that's what this camp is all about. Our goal is to help you find ways to bring that joyful noise to God and to have fun while doing it!

So whether you're feeling a little nervous or you can't contain your excitement, I hope this week goes very well for you and that when it is all over your heart will be singing to God!
