THE ROSEDALE RECORD

Reporting Choral Camp news since 2000 July 5, 2018 rosedale.edu Vol. 19, No. 3

A "heroic" preserver of history in our midst

Camper Julia Heatwole may not realize it, but she is a "born archivist." That's what Rosedale Bible College's Director of Library Services Reuben Sairs says, and he should know, because librarians know that kind of thing.

What is an archivist? It's somebody who takes care of public records and historical documents. One person said, "Being an archivist is fun . . . if you like to read other people's mail."

But others have a more noble view of the matter, like Pat M. Neff, the 28th Governor of Texas and ninth President of Baylor University. He said, "The preservers of history are as heroic as its makers."

What does all this have to do with Julia? You may have noticed that she wears a cute little pouch over her shoulder everywhere she goes. It's about the size of a passport and is fetchingly decorated with teal designs.

It turns out that Camper Allison Beachy gave Julia the pouch two years ago. Now Julia uses it to carry all the Choral Camp Records for the last two years (plus this year's as well).

Not only that, she has all three of her Choral Camp Time Capsule ID Cards, which are crucial to unlocking her Time Capsule in the future. "It's everything Choral Camp, all the time," she says. She even carries unfinished Art Room projects in the pouch.

Reuben Sairs is impressed. She obviously "wants to preserve records for future generations," he says. "At some point, of course, she'll have to move these records to a climate-controlled system. We usually think of archives as acid-free paper and bare shelves."

He is particularly pleased that Julia recognizes the significance of the Choral Camp Time Capsules as a record. As you may know, campers write messages to themselves for the Capsules (For example, "I want to be a fire fighter when I grow up.")

These records matter, says Reuben. "We all want to know (and to tell other people) what we used to be like."

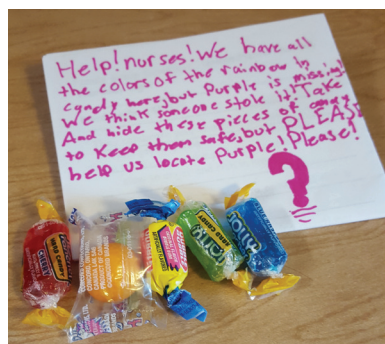

Campers, think about what you write down for your Time Capsule today. Your future self will be reading these eagerly. Julia is ready. Are you?

Archivists love this quote: "There is no government by the people without records for the people."

Purple goes missing—campers ask for help

It was a cry for help, said Nurse Mikala. She and Nurse Kelly found the note in Beethoven, Room 5. It read:

“Help! Nurses! We have all the colors of the rainbow by candy here, but Purple is missing! We think someone stole it! Take and hide these pieces of candy to keep them safe, but PLEASE help us locate Purple! Please!”

Sure enough, as the nurses checked out the other rooms, they did indeed find a piece of purple candy (see middle picture). But was it actually Purple?

“We don’t know,” said Kelly. “It’s so hard to be sure . . .”

“And we don’t want to accuse anyone falsely,” said Nurse Mikala, coughing a bit in a way that sounded like “8!”

But of course, we can’t even be sure that’s what we heard. Still, the nurses now have all the colors of the rainbow by candy, so well done, Room 5.
