THE ROSEDALE RECORD

Reporting Choral Camp news since 2000

We have discovered that one of our own trusted counselors is a fake! Lenore Varney, 6th-year camp affiliate and well-known face in Handel Hall, was outed as a Freedomian spy on Monday.

Rumors flew through campus, but staff kept the accusations quiet until they were sure of her identity. The Record decided to keep its commitment to honesty and get this story to the public right away.

"But she's my counselor!" Camper Eleyna Beachy is shocked.

Danny Peterson, a counselor in Bach Hall, saw through the Freedomian ruse.

"The first thing that made me suspicious was when we were unloading food in the walk-in freezer—she kept complaining how hot it was." Later, he added that "Lenore said she would have won the shaving cream fight if only it had been snowing." (Freedomia is cold.)

The ploy was also exposed by Mozart's Assistant. Hall Leader, Ellie Blanton.

"Her true nature really came out while we were playing Gaga Ball," says Ellie. "She was so focused on winning, and her voice sounded strange . . . That's when I noticed something was up with Lenore." Or should we say Ludmila?

During our extensive interview with the mole, she revealed herself to be Ludmila Varnovich—a Freedomian special agent who took on the job of in-filtrating Rosedale back in 2013. Once she had breached our borders, her job was to bring back information about Choral Camp musical methods to the Motherland.

"I was supposed to find out how campers can learn and still have fun," she confessed. "My comrades and I were so curious about that."

Hans Shenk (a.k.a. Mr. Quick Quote) said he'd been suspicious of all the thunderstorms plaguing camp. "Now it all makes sense," he said. "They're engineering the weather to mask the growling of the Freedomian bears in the tree line."

Aftermath of the shocking discovery

"But she's my counselor!" squeaked family group member Eleyna Beachy, disappointment on her face.

Like Eleyna, we're all disappointed. But we're left wondering what could've happened if her plot hadn't been sniffed out. If we can't trust staffers, then who can we trust?

Many questions surround these happenings, but this one must be answered: What other villains might be lurking in our halls, and how can we keep ourselves safe?

About moles: In espionage terms, a mole (also called a "deep cover agent" or "sleeper agent") is a spy who is recruited before having access to secret intelligence; he/she gets into the target organization. Although they do go "underground," they are not small, burrowing mammals.
