Recipients whose Pell amounts are below 740 are not eligible for SEOG.

SEOG for each academic year will be awarded according to the schedule above. Funds are awarded on a first come, first served basis. To receive an award, students must be accepted at RBC and have completed a FAFSA and submitted any required verification documents.

Students entering, or completing, the financial aid application process after the start of fall semester will only receive SEOG if there are remaining funds to disburse.

Remaining Funds

The financial aid office may choose to carry forward up to 10% of the remaining funds to the next school year. Any SEOG funds remaining until the mid-point of spring semester will be disbursed among currently enrolled full-time SEOG-eligible students. The minimum award amount will be $100. Funds will be awarded beginning with disbursements to students receiving the highest amount of SEOG until SEOG is exhausted.
