The Secret Floor?

Late Wednesday night, when all the campers were having fun at their hall parties, I noticed Liz, the Camp Director, sneaking into the girls elevator.

She looked nervous, glancing around left to right, right to left. Curious, I decided to investigate to see where she was heading. I eyed the next floor, but she was nowhere to be seen!

Looking around in the hallways, I saw she had completely disappeared. This was definitely not right.

I asked one of the Price counselors, Lily Sorensen, if she had seen anything. "I do see her repeatedly walking into the girls' dorms, and not coming out for hours!"

Asking around, I realized that multiple campers and counselors saw the same thing during the day.

"What if she has a secret base in the girls' dorms?" said a camper from green-blue-black.

Some claimed that there was no such thing, since they would hear her if she did, but others had their doubts, and evidence to prove it.

"I've heard her mumble about needing to grab supplies from the third level," quotes a yellow-orange-red camper.

I tried to reach Liz to question such rumors and disappearances, but she was gone, again. Still determined, I searched the elevator for answers myself. Surely there would be something.

Sure enough, when I was searching the walls, I found a hidden button, with a number three. Nothing happened when I pressed it. But one day, I will truly find out what's up there.
